5.2. Enforcement. Any Standard Contractual Clauses executed by ThoughtSpot and Customer will only be enforceable against ThoughtSpot as integrated with this DPA and will form the entire agreement with regard to the Processing of Customer Personal Data unless the applicable EU & UK Data Protection Law to which the relevant Customer entity is subject requires that the Customer entity itself bring or be a party to such a claim. Any such Customer claim will at all times be subject to any aggregate limitation of liability that applies to the Customer under the Agreement. The existence of more than one claim will not enlarge this limit.

5.3. Standard Contractual Clauses with New Sub-Processors. Where required under EU & UK Data Protection Law, ThoughtSpot or ThoughtSpot's Affiliates shall require Sub-Processors to abide by: (a) the DPF; (b) the Standard Contractual Clauses for Data Processors established in third countries; or (c) another lawful mechanism for the transfer of Personal Data as approved by the European Commission.

Additionally, either Party may terminate the UK Addendum pursuant to Section 19 of the UK Addendum if, after a good faith effort by the Parties to amend this DPA to account for the approved changes and any reasonable clarifications to the UK Addendum, the Parties are unable to come to a mutual agreement.

6. Sub-Processors.

Upon written request, ThoughtSpot will provide Customer all relevant information it reasonably can in connection with its applicable Sub-Processor agreements where required to satisfy Customer's obligations under Data Protection Laws.

6.3. Changes to Sub-Processors. ThoughtSpot will make available on its Sub-Processor site a mechanism for Customer to subscribe to notifications of new Sub-Processors. ThoughtSpot will provide such notification at least fourteen (14) days in advance of allowing the new Sub-Processor to Process Personal Data (the "Objection Period"). During the Objection Period, Customer may object in writing to ThoughtSpot's appointment of the new Sub-Processor, provided that such objection is based on reasonable grounds relating to data protection. In such event, the parties will discuss Customer's concerns in good faith with a view to achieving resolution. If Customer can reasonably demonstrate that the new Sub-Processor is unable to Process Personal Data in compliance with the terms of this DPA and ThoughtSpot cannot provide an alternative Sub-Processor, or the parties are not otherwise able to achieve resolution as provided in the preceding sentence, Customer, as its sole and exclusive remedy, may terminate the Order Form(s) with respect only to those aspects of ThoughtSpot Cloud which cannot be provided by ThoughtSpot without the use of the new Sub-Processor by providing written notice to ThoughtSpot. ThoughtSpot will refund Customer any prepaid unused fees of such Order Form(s) following the effective date of termination effective under this Section 6.

7.1.1.Data Security Measures. ThoughtSpot shall maintain appropriate technical and organizational safeguards designed to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of Administrative Information, including any Personal Data contained therein. Customer acknowledges that ThoughtSpot's data security measures are subject to technical progress and development and that ThoughtSpot may update or modify the security measures from time to time provided that such updates and modifications do not result in a material reduction in the commitments, protections or overall level of service provided to Customer.

7.1.2.Data Protection Contact. ThoughtSpot and its Sub-Processor Affiliates will respond to data protection inquiries throughout the duration of this DPA and can be contacted at privacy@thoughtspot.com.

7.1.3.No Assessment of Customer Personal Data by ThoughtSpot. Customer is responsible for reviewing the information made available by ThoughtSpot relating to data security and making an independent determination as to whether ThoughtSpot Cloud meets Customer's requirements and legal obligations under Data Protection Laws.

7.1.4.Third-Party Certifications and Audits. ThoughtSpot has obtained third-party certifications and audits. Upon Customer's written request at reasonable intervals, and subject to the confidentiality obligations set forth in the Agreement, ThoughtSpot will make available to Customer (provided that Customer is not a competitor of ThoughtSpot) or Customer's independent, third-party auditor, as requested (provided that such auditor is not a competitor of ThoughtSpot) a copy of ThoughtSpot's then most recent third-party audits or certifications, as applicable.

7.1.5. Breach Notification. ThoughtSpot will report to Customer any breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of or access to Administrative Information (“Breach”) that it becomes aware of within seventy-two (72) hours following determination by ThoughtSpot that a Breach has occurred. 7.1.6. Breach Report. The initial report will be made to Customer’s security or privacy contact(s) designated in ThoughtSpot’s customer support portal (or if no such contact(s) are designated, to the primary contact designated by Customer). The report will include the name and contact information of the ThoughtSpot contact from whom additional information may be obtained. ThoughtSpot shall inform Customer of the measures that it will adopt to mitigate the cause of the Breach and to prevent future Breaches. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Customer acknowledges that because ThoughtSpot personnel cannot view the content of Personal Data, it will be unlikely that ThoughtSpot can provide information as to the particular nature of the Personal Data, or where applicable, the identities, number or categories of affected Data Subjects. Communications by or on behalf of ThoughtSpot with Customer in connection with a Breach shall not be construed as an acknowledgment by ThoughtSpot of any fault or liability with respect to the Breach. Customer will cooperate with ThoughtSpot in maintaining accurate contact information in the customer support portal and by providing any information that is reasonably requested to resolve any security incident, including any Breaches, identify its root cause(s) and prevent a recurrence. Customer is solely responsible for determining whether to notify the relevant supervisory authorities and impacted Data Subjects and for providing such notice.

7.1.7. Audit. No more than once per year and upon written request by Customer, Customer will have the right directly or through its representative(s) (provided however, that such representative(s) shall enter into written obligations of confidentiality and non-disclosure directly with ThoughtSpot), to access all reasonable and industry recognized documentation evidencing ThoughtSpot’s policies and procedures governing the security of Administrative Information (“Audit”). ThoughtSpot reserves the right to refuse to provide Customer (or its representatives) with any information which would pose a security risk to ThoughtSpot or its customers, or which ThoughtSpot is prohibited to provide or disclose under applicable law or contractual obligation. Any expenses incurred by Customer in connection with the Audit will be borne exclusively by Customer. Audits will be scheduled at least sixty (60) days in advance of taking place with Customer submitting a detailed proposed audit plan for ThoughtSpot approval at least two (2) weeks in advance of the proposed audit date describing the proposed scope, duration, and start date of the Audit. Audits may be subject to an added cost where the cost of the audit to ThoughtSpot exceeds 2% of the total annual contract commitment under the Agreement.

7.1.8. Audit Output. Upon completion of the Audit, ThoughtSpot and Customer may schedule a mutually convenient time to discuss the output of the Audit. ThoughtSpot may in its sole discretion, consistent with industry and ThoughtSpot’s standards and practices, make commercially reasonable efforts to implement Customer’s suggested improvements noted in the Audit to improve ThoughtSpot’s security. The Audit and the results derived therefrom are Confidential Information of ThoughtSpot.

7.2. ThoughtSpot Personnel. Access to Personal Data by ThoughtSpot will be limited to personnel who require such access to perform ThoughtSpot’s obligations under the Agreement, who are bound by obligations to maintain the confidentiality of such Personal Data at least as protective as those set forth herein and in the Agreement, and who have received appropriate training. ThoughtSpot will ensure that such confidentiality obligations survive the termination of the personnel engagement.

7.3. Customer Protection. Customer is responsible for its use of ThoughtSpot Cloud, including making appropriate use of ThoughtSpot Cloud to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk in respect of the Administrative Information, securing its account and user credentials, managing its data back-up strategies, and protecting the security of Administrative Information when in transit to and from ThoughtSpot Cloud and taking any appropriate steps to pseudonymize, securely encrypt, or backup any Administrative Information.

7.4. Deletion of Customer Administrative Information. ThoughtSpot will enable Customer to delete Administrative Information during the term of the Agreement in a manner consistent with the functionality of ThoughtSpot Cloud. Upon termination or expiry of the Agreement and at Customer’s written direction, ThoughtSpot shall promptly delete any remaining Administrative Data in Customer’s instance of ThoughtSpot Cloud, unless retention of the Administrative Data is required by law.

8. General Obligations.

- 8.1. Confidentiality. Customer may only disclose the terms of this DPA to a supervisory authority to the extent required by Data Protection Laws, provided however, that any such disclosure shall be limited to the minimum information necessary to satisfy such disclosure requirement. Customer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that data protection or regulatory authorities do not make this DPA public.
- 8.2. Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement or this DPA, Customer's remedies with respect to any breach by ThoughtSpot of the terms of this DPA will be subject to any aggregate limitation of liability under the Agreement. If ThoughtSpot, Inc., ThoughtSpot EMEA Ltd. and ThoughtSpot India Private Limited are not a party to the Agreement, the section of the Agreement titled "Limitations of Liability" (or equivalent) will apply to ThoughtSpot, Inc., ThoughtSpot EMEA Ltd. and ThoughtSpot India Private Limited, and in such respect any references to ThoughtSpot will include ThoughtSpot, Inc., ThoughtSpot EMEA Ltd., ThoughtSpot India Private Limited and the ThoughtSpot entity who is party to the Agreement. Customer further agrees that any regulatory penalties assessed against ThoughtSpot in relation to Personal Data that arise as a result of, or in connection with, Customer's failure to comply with its obligations under this DPA or any applicable Data Protection Laws will count toward and reduce ThoughtSpot's liability under the Agreement as if it were liability to the Customer under the Agreement.
- 8.3. Termination. This DPA will terminate simultaneously and automatically with the termination of the Agreement or expiration of the Subscription Term where Customer does not renew.
- 8.4. Waivers and Modifications. A waiver of any right is only effective if it is in writing and only against the party who signed such writing and for the circumstances given. Any modification of this DPA must be in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties.
